From the Pastor

A young man in Montana bought a horse from a farmer for $100. The farmer agreed to deliver the horse the next day. However, the farmer did not come with the horse. "I'm afraid the horse has died," he explained. The young man said, "Well, then give me my money back." The farmer said, "Can't do that. I spent it already."

The young man thought for a moment and said, "Ok, just bring me the dead horse." The farmer asked, "What you going to do with a dead horse?" The young man said, "I'm going to raffle it off. I just won't tell anybody he's dead."

A month later, the farmer met up with the young man and asked, "What happened with that dead horse?" The young man said, "I raffled him off. I sold 500 tickets at two dollars apiece and made a profit of $998." The farmer said, "Didn't anyone complain?" The young man said, "Just the guy who won. So I gave him his two dollars back."

In today's gospel, Jesus tells a similar story filled with crooked people. The steward had been entrusted with managing the rich man's wealth, and instead he wasted it. He lost his job, and he was too lazy to take on harder work, and too proud to depend on others to help him. He turned his master's debtors into crooks, because they were happy to accept the benefit that would come to them as the steward began altering their bill for what was owed to the master. When the steward's job ends, they will owe it to him to return the favor he has shown them. It seems like the plot for a law and order show. Clearly the steward belongs in the penitentiary. But, there is no condemnation. Instead, the master commends him because he is so clever. It doesn't seem very Christian for Jesus to be using such characters as an example for us to follow.

"The children of this world are more prudent in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light." This is his point. So often we are very adept at making things go exactly as we want them to, we know just the right words to say or how to act. But, we are part of the children of light – we are committed to following Jesus. And so often we don't try very hard to prove it.

Think how difficult it is to lose weight. Suddenly we restrict how often we enjoy our favorite foods, our physical activity increases, we set a goal and discipline what goes into our mouth until it is reached. As children of the light, we want a personal relationship with Jesus. But, we cannot wait for it to happen. We can set a goal to turn off the TV for thirty minutes to read the Bible or say the rosary. We can include in our schedule fifteen minutes of quiet time to sit in the presence of the Lord and focus on his love for us. And suddenly we begin to see the hand of God at work in so many parts of our life.

We are very careful to be polite to strangers so that others will not judge us to have bad manners. We even think before we say something or how we will act because we do not want to appear to be ignorant or silly. But, we are children of the light. We have to be careful to turn aside from our anger so that we don't speak words that hurt someone we love in our own home. It isn't enough to not speak hateful things, so we choose to be generous and loving even in how we judge people in our heart.

We live in the world, but because of our relationship with Jesus, we are meant to be different – more generous, more patient, more of an influence for good on the people around us. Think how the world would change if we were more serious about being children of the light in what we say to one another, and how we treat each other, even in what we think about each other. Jesus has chosen us to shine the light of his love into the world. It doesn't just happen. It takes hard work and determination to be what Jesus expects us to be. We have to focus on what is important.

–Fr. Stephen W Bierschenk

thank you

I wish to express my sincere gratitude to all parishioners of St. Monica for your generous contribution to the Flood Relief Fund for the Diocese of Lafayette. It will go a long way to help families who have lost everything. May God bless you and your families for answering the call during this Jubilee Year of Mercy to show the mercy of God to those in need.

Bishop Doug Deshotel

Note: The Flood Relief Fund aids only homes and families affected by the flood in the Diocese. Just one or two feet of water in the house means all the sheetrock, floors and most appliances have to be replaced. Many didn't have flood insurance, were retired or did not qualify for federal assistance.

De El Pastor

Un joven de Montana compro un caballo por $100 de un granjero. El granjero acordó de llevar el caballo al día siguiente. Pero, el granjero no llevo con el caballo. "Lamento decirle que el caballo ha muerto," dijo. El joven dijo, "bueno, entonces devuélvame mi dinero." El granjero dijo, "No puedo, ya lo gaste."

El joven pensó por un momento y dijo, "Esta bien, solo tráigame el caballo muerto." El granjero le pregunto, "¿Qué vas hacer con un caballo muerto?" El joven dijo, "lo voy a rifar. Solamente que no le diré a nadie que está muerto."

Un mes más tarde, el granjero se reunió con el joven y le pregunto, "¿Qué paso con el caballo muerto?" Dijo el joven, "lo rife. Vendí 500 boletos a dos dólares cada uno y obtuve una ganancia de $998." Dijo el granjero, "¿Nadie reclamó?" El joven dijo, "solamente la persona que gano. Entonces le devolví sus dos dólares."

En el evangelio de hoy, Jesús nos cuenta una historia similar con gente corrupta. El mayordomo tenía que administrar una gran fortuna de un hombre rico, pero lo gasto. Perdió su trabajo, fue flojo en tomar otro trabajo y muy orgulloso para depender de la ayuda de otros. Convirtió a los deudores de su amo en corruptos (ladrones), porque estaban dispuestos a aceptar los beneficios que recibirían cuando el mayordomo comenzó a modificar el dinero que se le debía a su amo. Cuando se le termino el trabajo al mayordomo, ellos debían de regresarles el favor que les había mostrado. Parece el drama del programa de ley y orden. Claramente el mayordomo debe de estar en la prisión. Pero no hubo condenación. En ves, el amo lo elogia por ser tan inteligente. No se ve tan Cristiano que Jesús utilice tales personajes como ejemplo para que nosotros sigamos.

"Los hijos de este mundo son más prudentes en tratar con su propia generación que los hijos de la luz." Este es el punto. A menudo somos expertos en hacer que las cosas vayan como queremos, sabemos perfectamente las palabras que tenemos que decir o cómo actuar. Pero, somos parte de los hijos de luz, estamos llamados a seguir a Jesús. Muy a menudo no tratamos de demostrarlo.

Piensa en lo difícil que es perder de peso. De repente nos prohibimos en que tan a menudo disfrutamos de nuestra comida favorita, nuestra actividad física crece, nos ponemos metas y disciplinas en lo que comemos hasta llegar a la meta. Como hijos de la luz, queremos tener una relación personal con Jesús. Pero nos cuesta esperar que llegue. Podemos ponernos la meta de apagar el televisor por treinta minutos y leer la Biblia o rezar el rosario. Podemos incluir en nuestra agenda quince minutos de silencio para sentarnos en la presencia del Señor y enfocarnos en su amor. En seguida podremos ver la mano de Dios actuando en muchas formas de nuestra vida.

Somos muy cuidadosos en ser educados con extraños para que no nos juzguen en tener malos modales. Inclusive pensamos cuando decimos algo o como nos comportaremos porque no queremos que nos vean como ignorantes o tontos. Somos hijos de la luz. Debemos de tener cuidado y olvidar nuestro enojo para no decir palabras que hieran alguien que amamos en nuestra propio hogar. No es suficiente con no decir palabras hirientes, debemos ser generosos, cariñosos inclusive en como juzgamos a las personas en nuestro corazón.

Vivimos en el mundo, pero porque tenemos una relación con Jesús estamos llamados a ser diferentes, más generosos, más pacientes, más influyentes para el bien con las personas que nos rodean. Piensa en la manera que cambiaría el mundo si tomáramos más en serio el ser hijos de la luz en lo que nos decimos unos a otros, como nos tratamos, inclusive lo que pensamos el uno del otro. Jesús nos ha escogido para que brille su amor en el mundo. No simplemente sucede, toma trabajo y determinación en ser como Jesús espera de nosotros. Tenemos que enfocarnos en lo que es importante..
