Today's Gospel

"There once was a person who had a fig tree planted in his orchard, and when he came in search of fruit on it but found none, he said to the gardener, 'For three years now I have come in search of fruit on this fig tree but have found none. So cut it down. Why should it exhaust the soil?'" (LK 13:1-9).

Phil Riley, Principal

From the Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

On this Third Sunday of Lent, as we continue to keep the perspective of our journey toward our heavenly home, we are reminded not to put off till tomorrow what is important today. The parable of the fig tree reminds us that God is patient with us, but that we must not loiter concerning our conversion. We are to continually work out our salvation, approaching God each day as He calls us to Him. Today, Holy Mother the Church solemnly celebrates the Scrutinies with those in Christian Initiation who seek entry into the Church. The Scrutinies are "rites for self-searching and repentance" that help to "heal all that is weak, defective, or sinful in the hearts of the elect," as well as "to bring out, then strengthen all that is upright, strong, and good." (from Rites of Christian Initiation of Adults). We could all use a little "scrutiny" in our own lives in order to guard against temptation and get out from under the power of evil that oftentimes has a subtle hold on us. Prayer, fasting and almsgiving help in this effort. But let us not stop there! If we find something wrong, let us choose something right and get back on track! Let us choose Christ who is the source of that "living water" that leads to eternal life. And then, let us share this discovery in faith with one another.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Fr. Guadagnoli

Del Pastor

Mis queridos feligreses,

En este tercer domingo de Cuaresma, mientras continuamos manteniendo la perspectiva de nuestro viaje hacia nuestro hogar celestial, se nos recuerda que no debemos postergar para mañana lo que es importante hoy. La parábola de la higuera nos recuerda que Dios es paciente con nosotros pero que no debemos perder el tiempo y debemos ocuparnos en nuestra conversión. Debemos trabajar continuamente en nuestra salvación, acercándonos a Dios cada día pues Él nos llama continuamente. Hoy en día, Nuestra Santa Madre e Iglesia celebra solemnemente los Escrutinios con aquellos que buscan ingresar a la Iglesia viviendo el proceso de la Iniciación Cristiana (RICA). Los Escrutinios son "ritos para la búsqueda de uno mismo y el arrepentimiento" que ayudan a "curar todo lo que es débil, defectuoso o pecaminoso en los corazones de los elegidos", así como a "resaltar, y luego fortalecer todo lo que es recto, fuerte y bueno." (tomado de Ritos de Iniciación Cristiana de Adultos). Todos podríamos usar un poco de "escrutinio" en nuestras propias vidas para protegernos contra la tentación y salir del poder del mal que muchas veces tiene un control sutil sobre nosotros. La oración, el ayuno y la limosna ayudan en este esfuerzo. ¡Pero no nos detengamos allí! Si encontramos algo mal, en cambio ¡encontremos algo correcto para elegirlo y retomemos el camino! Escojamos a Cristo, que es la fuente de esa "agua viva" que conduce a la vida eterna. Y luego, compartamos este descubrimiento en la fe unos con otros.

Sinceramente suyo en Cristo,
P. Guadagnoli
