From the Pastor

My Dear Parishioners,

In today's Gospel reading, Jesus contrasts the scribes with the poor widow. The scribes were very proud and selfish with everything because they did not trust God. The poor widow was humble because she trusted God and believed that God would provide. Due to our fallen human nature, our pride can influence us to not trust and to be selfish.

Unfortunately, this attitude is the result of some bad experiences. Sometimes we become hurt and angry when no one appreciates the good we do to help others. Sometimes we have been hurt by criticism or when our motives have been misinterpreted. With God we can begin to heal from these hurts. First, let us ask God to purify our hearts so that we turn from within to turning toward God, trusting that He will help us. It takes patience and time as well as faith and trust in God. Little by little, let us seek to do God's will, to please Him, and not do things only to please others. God wants to give us His grace to give us the confidence that the widow had, not the puffed up pride of the scribes. Here is a prayer, attributed to St. Ignatius of Loyola and which is part of Ignatian spirituality, that we might pray to assist us in growth of humility, trust, and faith in God.

Prayer for Generosity

*Lord, teach me to be generous,
to serve you as you deserve,
to give and not to count the cost,
to fight and not to heed the wounds,
to toil and not to seek for rest,
to labor and not to look for any reward,
save that of knowing that I do your holy will.*

Let us continue to give thanks to God from Whom all blessings flow.

In Christ,
Fr. Guadagnoli

News & Events

Preparations for our capital campaign are underway! The campaign will support our school renovations; more information will be shared in the coming weeks. If you would like to serve as a campaign volunteer, please contact the parish office at (214) 358-1453 or Leslie Ulrich at lulrich@steiergroup.com.

Teen Volunteers Needed! St. Monica is looking for high school volunteers to help set up, prepare materials, and make copies for children's faith formation classes on Sundays 2:00-3:30pm and 3:30-5:00pm. Please contact Maria Jones if you are interested: 214-351-8549 ex 7132, mjones@stmonicachurch.org.

St. Monica Mother's Ministry will hold its November gathering on Thursday, Nov. 15 at 8pm in room 220 of the Family Center. We'll be reflecting on the second Joyful Mystery, the Visitation. Lap babies are always welcome. For more details, contact stmonicamothers@gmail.com.

Women of the parish are invited to SoulCore on Saturday, Nov. 24, at 9:30am in Room 201 of the Family Center. Come stretch, re-energize, and pray after all the turkey and shopping! Bring your yoga mat or a large towel, and be sure to invite your out-of-town company or friends home from college to join you. Find more information at www.soulcore.com.

We are currently in need of volunteers to pick up bread and desserts at the new Central Market at Midway and Northwest Highway every other Monday, Friday or Sunday at 7:30am. You deliver them to a local donation site, such as North Dallas Shared Ministries, or Union Gospel Mission. If you are interested and you have or are willing to obtain a Diocesan Safe Environment clearance, please call Tony Cardillo at 214-714-6452.

Youth For Life is going to Washington, D.C. Jan. 17-20 for the 46th Annual National March for Life. The trip is open to all high school youth ages 14-18 and chaperones age 21+. For more information visit prolifedallas.org/dcmarch.

North Dallas Shared Ministries Volunteers Needed! We are in need of volunteers to work in the food pantry as well as interviewers who work with clients. Training is provided and all volunteers work under seasoned supervisors. Volunteers are needed each weekday from 9am-3pm. Please contact Ruth Ann Janson at ruthann@ndsm.org for more information.

All women are invited to join the Dallas Vocation Guild. The DVG is a spiritual, charitable Catholic organization dedicated to the promotion of religious life. The DVG meets on the third Thursday of every month (September to May) at 11am in the Family Center. Our next meeting will be November 15. For more information or to make luncheon reservations, contact Shirley Vilfordi, 214-369-7724 or shirleyvilfordie@gmail.com.

Del Pastor

Queridos Feligreses,

En la lectura del Evangelio de hoy, Jesús contrasta a los escribas con la viuda pobre. Los escribas eran muy orgullosos y egoístas con todo porque no confiaban en Dios. La pobre viuda era humilde porque ella confiaba en Dios y creía que Dios proveería. Debido a nuestra naturaleza humana decaída, nuestro orgullo puede influirnos a no confiar y ser egoístas.

Desafortunadamente, esta actitud es el resultado de algunas malas experiencias. A veces nos sentimos heridos y enojados cuando nadie aprecia el bien que hacemos para ayudar a los demás. A veces nos lastiman las críticas o cuando nuestros motivos se han malinterpretado. Con Dios podemos empezar a sanar de estas heridas. Primero, pidámosle a Dios que purifique nuestros corazones para que nos volvamos de adentro a volvernos hacia Dios, confiando en que Él nos ayudará. Se necesita paciencia y tiempo, así como fe y confianza en Dios. Poco a poco, busquemos hacer la voluntad de Dios, complacerlo y no hacer cosas solo para complacer a otros. Dios quiere darnos su gracia para darnos la confianza que tenía la viuda, no el orgullo de los escribas. Aquí hay una oración, atribuida a San Ignacio de Loyola y que forma parte de la espiritualidad ignaciana, para que podamos orar y ayudarnos a crecer en humildad, confianza y fe en Dios.

Oración por la generosidad

*Señor, enséñame a ser generoso, para servirte como te mereces,
Dar y no contar el costo.
luchar y no atender las heridas,
trabajar y no buscar descanso,
trabajar y no buscar ninguna recompensa,
Salvo eso de saber que hago tu santa voluntad.*

Continuemos dando gracias a Dios de quien fluyen todas las bendiciones.

En la paz de Cristo,
P. Guadagnoli
